

Do you want to take a break from your daily routine and come back inspired and highly motivated?
Do you want to get socially involved, because you are convinced that sharing knowledge and experience can have a sustainable impact? At the same time you have the chance to develop your personal skills? Then we can offer you a possibility how to spend a meaningful sabbatical:

Volunteer Expert for a Foundation in Ecuador

Period: min. 3 month

Project description:

Our partner is a foundation based in Quito, Ecuador. It was founded in 2016. Its mission is to work with youth of parents who are currently or were formerly in juvenile detention, as well as the parents themselves in order to effectively reinsert each member of the family into society and become productive citizens. They also offer professional skills development workshops. The foundation is mainly supported by its co-organization who is committed to sustainable travel and leads immersive travel programs around Ecuador. They are now looking for a volunteer expert to support the driven management team in marketing and sales.

Your duties and responsibilities:

- You support the local team in developing a strategic plan to sustain the organizations activities.
- You follow and improve upon the marketing plan and help to design a sustainable marketing strategy.
- You advise on a social media strategy.
- You help optimizing the website and SEO
- You support relationship building and sales activities.
- You will be part and assist in the daily business.

Your profile:

- You have at least 3-4 years work experience within a professional organizational setting.
- You have skills in marketing, sales and social media.
- You think outside of the box, are creative, experienced, results-driven and come up with new and fresh ideas!
- You are able to communicate well and persuade others.
- You are interested in applying and developing your knowledge in the context of everyday life in Ecuador.
- You are in robust health and capable of working under difficult conditions.
- You have very good knowledge of Spanish and English and work confidently with the MS office package.

What we offer:

We offer you the chance to spend a meaningful sabbatical in an intercultural and technically challenging environment providing assistance to the above mentioned project. You will receive intensive individual preparation and we assist before, during and after you voluntary service to create the necessary framework for your secure and sustainable sabbatical. This is a voluntary position. In order not to affect the project budget, you will also pay for local transport, boarding and food.

About Manager für Menschen®:

Since 2011 we recruit and place professionals and managers as volunteer experts in social projects. We offer socially involved and interested people the chance to integrate a 'social sabbatical' in their active professional life.
