

Do you want to take a break from your daily routine and come back inspired and highly motivated?
Do you want to get socially involved, because you are convinced that sharing knowledge and experience can have a sustainable impact? At the same time you have the chance to develop your personal skills? Then we can offer you a possibility how to spend a meaningful sabbatical:

Volunteer Expert for a Training Centre in Uganda

Period: min. 3 month

Project description:

Our partner is an organization based in Kasese, Uganda. The Vocational Training Centre was founded in 2007 with the vision to provide quality post secondary and non-formal education in the district in order to fight poverty, create jobs and transform livelihoods.

For the sustainability the team is currently working to transform the centre in an innovation centre to train and produce the products for the market. The innovation centre will host a crafts shop and tailoring centre, a production room for soap making, a salon for both males and females, a mini bakery, a small guest house with a restaurant to offer practical skills training to the hotel and tourism students. The organization is now looking for a volunteer expert to support the management team.

Your duties and responsibilities:

- You train the staff in strategic planning and project management.
- You support the local team in developing a strategic plan to sustain the organizations activities.
- You train the team in management skills.
- You support in creating partnerships with established small scale industries.
- You train the staff in communications, marketing and fundraising
- You will be part and assist in the daily business.

Your profile:

- You have at least 3-4 years work experience within a professional organizational setting.
- You have skills in project management.
- You are able to communicate well and persuade others.
- You are interested in applying and developing your knowledge in the context of everyday life in Uganda.
- You are in robust health and capable of working under difficult conditions.
- You have very good knowledge of English and work confidently with the MS office package.

What we offer:

We offer you the chance to spend a meaningful sabbatical in an intercultural and technically challenging environment providing assistance to the above mentioned project. You will receive intensive individual preparation and we assist before, during and after you voluntary service to create the necessary framework for your secure and sustainable sabbatical. This is a voluntary position. In order not to affect the project budget, you will also pay for local transport, boarding and food.

About Manager für Menschen®:
