

Do you want to take a break from your daily routine and come back inspired and highly motivated?
Do you want to get socially involved, because you are convinced that sharing knowledge and experience can have a sustainable impact? At the same time you have the chance to develop your personal skills? Then we can offer you a possibility how to spend a meaningful sabbatical:

Volunteer Expert for a Social StartUp in Tanzania

Period: min. 3 month

Project description:

Our partner is a social StartUp based in Kigamboni/ Tanzania. It intends to conduct business while conserving the environment by influencing the major shift of the motorcycle taxis commonly known as bodaboda, from the traditional fuel powered units to electric powered units. They envisage to be the pioneer and champion in this business through introducing quality and affordable electric motorcycles in the Tanzanian markets. They are now looking for a volunteer expert to support the driven management team.

Your duties and responsibilities:

- You support the local team in developing a strategic plan to sustain the organizations activities.
- You conduct a market research, develop and monitor a testing process.
- You advise in improving the financial model.
- You support in looking for investors and create a fundraising strategy.
- You help to design a sustainable marketing strategy.
- You will be part and assist in the daily business.

Your profile:

- You have at least 3-4 years work experience within a professional organizational setting.
- You have skills in finance, marketing and strategic planning.
- You are able to communicate well and persuade others.
- You are interested in applying and developing your knowledge in the context of everyday life in Tanzania.
- You are in robust health and capable of working under difficult conditions.
- You have very good knowledge of English and work confidently with the MS office package.

What we offer:

We offer you the chance to spend a meaningful sabbatical in an intercultural and technically challenging environment providing assistance to the above mentioned project. You will receive intensive individual preparation and we assist before, during and after you voluntary service to create the necessary framework for your secure and sustainable sabbatical. This is a voluntary position. In order not to affect the project budget, you will also pay for local transport, boarding and food.

About Manager für Menschen®:

Since 2011 we recruit and place professionals and managers as volunteer experts in social projects. We offer socially involved and interested people the chance to integrate a 'social sabbatical' in their active professional life.

For further information please contact us at info@managerfuermenschen.com.

We are looking forward to your application.

